Mentoring Program Guidelines For “Mentees and Mentors”

Introduction: -

Maharana Pratapsinh Shikshan Santha Mumbai's, Anandibai Raorane Arts, Commerce & Science College, Vaibhavwadi, Dist- Sindhudurg operated mentoring program for all students through mentor-mentee committee. Now a days it is found that students has significant loss in their study due to some stress, pressure and lack of planning to achieve their goals. This mentoring Program has been developed with aims to retain and support students in the formative years of their career.

The aim of these guidelines is to provide a framework for the basis on which mentors and mentees participate in the program. Each mentor and mentee pair will communicate, interact and achieve their mentoring program goals differently – in the way that best suits each pair. This program is only intended to provide guidance and to solve some stress related issues.

What is mentoring?

“Mentoring is defined as a ‘mutually beneficial relationship which involves a more experienced person (Teacher) helping a less experienced person (Students) to identify and achieve their goals”.

A mentor provides support, a sounding board, knowledge, encouragement, guidance, and constructive feedback to the mentee by developing a genuine interest in the growth of their abilities and talents.

A mentee actively seeks support and guidance in their career development from an experienced mentor (Teacher). A mentee always has ultimate responsibility for their career development.

Objectives: -

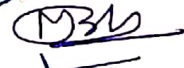

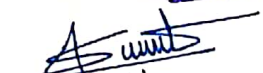

- To solve stress related issues of students;
- To motivate the students for higher education;
- To increase confidence and self-esteem among the students for their future endeavor;
- To improve the management and leadership quality of students;
- Develop communication skills and knowledge;
- Discuss and learn theoretical and practical issues;
- Receive support and guidance to achieve career goals;

Responsibilities of Mentor and Mentee: -

- Act ethically and with respect towards all;
- Maintain strict confidentiality;
- Commitment to attend all meetings;
- Discuss expectations of mentor and mentee in the first meeting and review as meetings progress

Mentor-Mentee Committee: -

1. Prin. Dr. C. S. Kakade (Chairman) -
2. Mr. V. V. Shinde (Convener) -
3. Dr. M. I. Kumbhar (Member) -
4. Dr. D. M. Sirsat (Member) -

❖ Mentoring programme guidelines for Mentor and Mentee has been approved by Mentor-Mentee committee of Anandibai Raorane Arts, Commerce and Science College, Vaibhavwadi.

As per the guidelines of mentoring, distribution of mentor-mentee are as follows,
